Season to date in Brief

Early season success has continued with wins at levels and across all disciplines. This has been reflected in category promotion for James Stuart to 1st; Paul McGuigan, Dan Sullivan, Chris Holmes, Simon Coles to 2nd; Mike Cownley and Austyn Tyler to 3rd.

Competition for the various road race trophies has been close this year and some of the categories will go down to the last week.

Not to be out done our mountain bikers have had their fair share of success with a Veteran team win and 9th place for the Mixed team in the Mountain Mayhem 24 Hr endurance race. They have also had many excellent placings in various categories in other events.

Club events have also been well supported with some 90 rides in the Evening Time Trial series which was won by Andy Davies. The Circuit TT championship was won by Paul McGuigan. The club team also trounced the Addiscombe CC by nearly 9 minutes in the Inter-club 10, placing 7 riders in the top 8. Dan Sullivan won the Club Hill Climb with a club best time for the short Ranmore Common course.

Jon Masters produced a sterling ride in the SCCU 100 to record a time of 4h 13m 32s and take the Goss Green Trophy. He also won the Short Distance TT Championship. Angus MacAlister has been setting some very good short distance TT times and broke the Richmond Park Prologue TT course and event record.

Now starts a busy social and not so serious off season.
